Old Business:

Last year Mark Marshall ran a program for new woman golfers. The women were very excited and wanted to continue golf, but doing a few holes at a time. Flo Marks and other ladies were mentors for these new golfers. The revenue from this program brought in $1,400. The program will continue this year and a league is being formed for new golfers or ladies who would like to play in the early afternoon.

The key pad at slice gate was again brought up and a request will be presented to the LMOA Board.

There will be markers on the cart path for family tees.

Computers tee times will not be started at this time.

A contract to run the Eagles Nest will be signed shortly and should open under new management by March 1st. The Eagles Nest will open the week of January 18th under the old management.

New Business:

Emil Colmenares gave the golf committee a plaque that was used to put names of best golfer of the year. Chris Zullo and Flo Marks will come up with criteria for the plaque.

Mark Marshall reported that the indoor golf cage and putting green have had a good response and he has given lessons. The youth foundation gave money for the cage and putting green.

Golf Committee Meeting Minutes

Course closed 20 days in December

Free 15 minute lessons in the marina on Wednesday from 10:30 - 12:00.

Ladies rules clinics begin Thursday January 21 at 9:00 in the Crofton Room.

The Falconer will be held on May 14, 15 & 16. Discussion followed on ways to make it easier for players to come to Lake Monticello, one suggestion was to check with Best Western and see if they could give some kind of rate to the golfers for that weekend. Wayne Murphy will check with the hotel.

Dick Bushey gave a report that he will be getting the deep tyn machine he requested. This year he will be working on green 5 then 8 and 13.

Bill Scanlon mentioned several issues he thought we should address and what we could do about them. One the decline of contract members. Discussion followed on ways we could help to draw people to the course. One suggestion was to enhance our course to make it look welcoming. It was thought we would close the course one day and get a volunteer group to go out and help Dick by doing some clean up. Dick Bushey and Bill will get together and talk about it.

The meeting ended 6:27pm.

Respectfully Submitted
Karen Whitcomb
